In Your Market, Across ASEAN and Beyond

We speak the language of South East Asia, serving as a bridge between our global technology partners from around the world and the varied markets of this diverse, economically vibrant region.

As a business partner, we help world-class companies bring their state-of-the-art solutions to South East Asia in a quick and cost-effective manner. Using our intimate knowledge of the local markets, we add value through engineering, manufacturing, distribution and localised customer support services, helping companies locally benefit from some of the world's most advanced solutions.

Through our more than 50 subsidiaries and associate companies in Australia, Cambodia, China, Indonesia, Malaysia, Myanmar, Philippines, Singapore, Taiwan, Thailand, and Vietnam, we work as one to serve over 20,000 customers in the region and beyond.
